

PARENTS

— MAKE A DIFFERENCE

The Office of Early Childhood (OEC) is looking for parents and caregivers to become a part of their new Parent Cabinet!

WHAT IS THE OEC PARENT CABINET?

The Parent Cabinet is a diverse parent-led advisory group to the OEC. This group meets regularly to help make improvements to the lives of children and families across the state on important matters including child care, home visiting, licensing, care 4 kids, and early intervention.

YOU AS THE PARENT ARE THE EXPERT!

You know your kids best, just as you know what they need most. The OEC Parent Cabinet empowers parents and gives you the chance to make an impact on issues including:

- How to improve laws and policies related to young children and their families
- The needs of families from all backgrounds
- How OEC can form lasting and effective partnerships with families

PARENT CABINET OPPORTUNITIES

- Share experience and first-hand knowledge with policy makers
- Hear from and work with OEC staff and leaders on topics related to Early Childhood
- Attend professional trainings and workshops to acquire new skills for leadership
- Cabinet members receive a stipend for their time and expertise.
